The North County Society of Fine Arts is a non-profit organization dedicated to the promotion of art and artists in San Diego. General meetings are held the second Thursday in September, November, January, February, March, April and May. Meetings begin at 7 PM at the Bernardo Heights Community Center, 16150 Bernardo Heights Parkway (corner of Avenida Venusto and Bernardo Heights Parkway).

Programs include demonstrations by accomplished artists, critiques, shows and exhibitions, paintouts, educational field trips, and a fund raising event for youth scholarships in October.

A quality newsletter is emailed to the members monthly, with news on upcoming events, awards, and other events worthy of your enthusiasm.

NCSFA members enjoy several venues in which to display their art, including an annual exhibit at the beautiful Poway Center for Performing Arts.

The NCSFA website sometimes posts photos of events and gives kudos to members. Members agree to the use of their name or photos on the website.
